

Hey ARVBA pastors, please consider joining me for this important meeting. College ministry is more difficult than ever before but the good news is that ANY sized congregation can make a significant difference on our lesser-known local campuses!

Hey folks. Please read the email below and consider joining us for this meeting. If we can get enough local church involvement, we can help this ministry while not putting too much burden on any one church or individual. Also, this will provide some great opportunities for our students attending UACCM, or other young adults in our churches, to get directly involved in ministry. If the meeting time doesn't work for you let us know and we can get with you individually.

Thank you.

Subject: Re: UACCM

Friends,

Wanted to send out an invite to an upcoming meeting to talk through opportunities to partner together in ministry on the campus of UACCM this fall semester. As we look forward to and plan for the semester we are excited to continue to be a part of the Lord's work on college campuses across the nation.

We'd like to gather together in order to talk through some details for the fall on June 3rd starting at 10am at FBC Oppelo. If you are able to make it or know of other individuals who would be strategic to invite please respond back to this email letting us know.

Thank you for your willingness to partner in reaching students on campus!
